ATIIM BOYKIN · PORTLAND CITY COUNCIL AT-LARGE 2026

Join Our Movement

Every voice matters — including yours. Here's the campaign, and here's how to be part of it.

I'm Atiim Boykin — "ah-TEEM," which means "our team." Twenty-five years inside the systems Portland depends on: clinician, program director, builder of second chances. Since spring I've knocked doors from Stroudwater to East Deering, asking neighbors two questions: what do you love about Portland, and what would you change? This campaign is written on porches, not in a backroom, and there's a place in it for you.

WHY I'M RUNNING

- 25 years fixing the systems people depend on — clinician, program director, builder of second chances.
- Hundreds of doors, listening first — this campaign is written on Portland's porches.
- Fairness means access — to housing, to opportunity, to being heard.
- Every voice matters — so every family can plant roots and stay.

SIX COMMITMENTS TO PORTLAND

01	Housing That Works	Permitting, density, and keeping neighbors already here in their homes.
02	Caring for Our Coast	Cruise accountability, stormwater, and bins instead of torn-open bags.
03	Keeping Us Safe	Crisis response before harm, and safer streets for everyone.
04	Building Our City	Workers, families, small business, and the fine print on development.
05	Growing Our Community	Neighborhood connection, participation, and places to belong.
06	A Place for the Arts & Artists	A self-sustaining fund that keeps creatives in the city they built.

> Every commitment has a full research brief behind it: sources, models from other cities, and an honest account of what each would actually take to pass. Read them at atiim.org.
